CAMP FIRE GIRLS

A week ago last Tuesday a group of girls, now organized as the "Camp Fire Girls," waited on the corner for the 6:30 Redondo bus. Evidently a feed was anticipated for their arms were loaded with good things to eat. Amidst much fun and laughter they sped away to the seaside. A frolic in the caged-in waters was enjoyed; some swimming ability demonstrated, and numerous ducking inflicted. It was a hungry group that later carried the eats to a pleasant nook by the rocks to picnic under the stars and listen to the sound of the lapping waters.

The Camp Fire organization corresponds to the Boy Scouts. It has an Indian basis, the chief feature being Indian names and symbols. A simple khaki costume, trimmed as the girl herself desires, and a head-band are worn at the ceremonial meeting.

There is a credit system, divided into seven parts, which covers most every phase of a girl's life. The seven divisions are: Health craft, hand craft, home craft, nature lore, camp craft, business and patriotism.

Under these heads come numerous honors, things to be done, and when told to the guardian at the monthly ceremonial meeting, to be rewarded with a bead. These beads are wooden and of different sizes, shapes and colors to fit different divisions. For instance, red for health, blue for nature, flame for home, and brown for camp craft. These may be strung on leather thongs and worn with the ceremonial gown. There are three ranks, that of Wood Gatherer, Fire Maker and Torch Bearer.

To become eligible for these ranks certain honors must be won, and for each a special bead is given. The three symbols are a ring, bracelet and pin, all of silver.

The Camp Fire Circle now organized is under the guardianship of Miss Doris Beaty. Many girls are interested and much enthusiasm is shown at the meetings.

Camp Fire should be a self-supporting organization. The first venture of the local girls was to rent cushions at Chautauqua last week. They wish to thank all who so kindly aided us in this. The next meeting will be held at the home of Elsie Burkholder, 907 Portola avenue, Tuesday, May 1, at 7 o'clock. More members are wanted.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Stoik, Mr. and Mrs. Reg Springer, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Greb and Mrs. Dora Schmidt were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. Buxton of Los Angeles in honor of their crystal wedding last week. There were forty-five guests present and all of them were old neighbors in Missouri, who played together as kiddies.

OIL COMPANY
ENTERS FIELD

Have Fifty-six Acres in Keystone Section; To Drill 21 Wells

The Castle Rock Oil Company, who holds fifty-six acres in the Keystone section, with offices at 707 South Hope street, Los Angeles, and on its property, corner Main street boulevard and Ocean avenue, announce they are now ready to sell stock, preferably to Torrance people, as indicated by their advertisement in this issue.

The company is capitalized for $1,000,000, divided into 100,000 shares, par value of $10 per share, of which 50,000 shares are preferred stock and 50,000 common stock.

Its officers and directors are all well-known business men of Los Angeles who have served the people of this county in various ways.

It is the intention of the company to give local people the first chance on the investment, and salesmen will be put in this field at once to acquaint those who wish to invest, with full particulars.

A PART OF THE TOWN

Every man is a part of his town. The town embraces the fortunes, and in some measure at least takes on the character of the man. So loyalty to one's town is no more than loyalty to one's self; and this loyalty is in the line of all well shaped human nature. Therefore it is right to say that the man who does not stand up for his town and community is in some

This sounds like a good principle wrong about him. His fellows will pass this judgment upon him, and the chances are that while he may add to the discomfort of others, he will not escape making himself unhappy.—Exchange.

THEY ALL HELP

One of the principles emphasized by the International Chamber of Commerce at its recent session at Rome was that men who engaged in non-productive pursuits should be diverted to productive labor. way dwarfed. That is something of industrial reform, but one that is hard to apply. The man who produces, some foolish luxury may be thought to be engaged in a non-productive pursuit. Yet if people will buy his stuff it will be produced by some one as long as the demand continues.

However, people usually come out best if they supply real needs. The useful articles that meet the permanent wants of human beings form the best fields for ambition. And there is too much speculation and trading in the world and too little real production.

WEEKS APPROVES $575,000
ALLOTMENT FOR HARBOR

WASHINGTON, April 26.—Secretary of War Weeks today approved the allotments of approximately $40,000,000 of the $56,000,000 appropriation for rivers and harbors work throughout the country.

The allotments include: San Pedro harbor, $575,000; San Francisco harbor, $300,000; Oakland harbor, $235,000; Coos Bay, Oregon, $900,000; San Diego harbor, California, $100,000.

NOTICE OF SALE

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned will on the 8th day of May, 1923, at the hour of 10 A. M. at the White Garage, Torrance, California, offer for sale to the highest bidder the following described property:

One certain Ford Touring Car, engine No. 601993 and with 1922 License No. 682308.

The property above mentioned was seized on 222nd Street between Cabrillo Street and Border Street in the City of Torrance on the 17th day of February, 1923, and the same has been ordered confiscated and sold after the conviction of the owner and driver thereof on a charge of transporting intoxicating liquors in said automobile.

Notice of the seizure of said property has been published and posted according to law and no claimant of said property has appeared.

Dated this 25th day of April, 1923.

B. M. ANDERSON.

Will Not Increase Prices on Solid and Pneumatic Truck Tires
Until May 1st

Never has Firestone been so well situated to give operators the greatest measure of Cushion, Traction and Mileage at the lowest cost.

Today, economical manufacturing and distribution are showing the fullest results. Our favorable purchases of rubber, in advance of the 150% increase brought about by the British Crude Rubber Restriction Act, aid further in maintaining the old price levels.

Whatever the Truck Service—the Firestone Dealer Has the Right Tire

Firestone developments of the past two years have made pace for the industry and set new records in sure, economical performance. Five tires—the Heavy Duty Cushion, the Truck Type Cord, the Maxi-Cushion, the Giant Solid and the High Type—cover the needs of motor haulage in all its forms. Each has a distinct work which it does best. Each possesses a definite and special value for the operator.

Truck owners, using pneumatic tires, will find the answer to every demand of rapid, economical transportation in the Firestone Truck Type Cords with the tread that increases carrying capacity and improves traction, and the powerful gum-dipped carcass construction.

Let the Firestone Service Dealers
Keep Your Trucks Moving

There are 800 Firestone Service Dealers, located in the principal trucking centers, fitted by natural ability and a thorough knowledge of trucking, to help you choose the right tire for your roads, loads and service.

Price Protection as Long as Stocks Last

Additional tires will be supplied to Service Dealers only so far as our present output will permit. Consult the nearest Firestone Service Dealer at once regarding your truck tire needs. He is in an advantageous position to give you an unusual tire—a specialized service—and prices which may not be duplicated in months.

Firestone Tire & Rubber Co., Akron, Ohio

The Firestone dealer will supply you with Passenger Car and Truck Type Cords. If you need solid or cushion tires he will refer you to the nearest Service Station, which is equipped with hydraulic press for quick change-overs. Make one of these Stations an active part of your trucking operations. You'll reap results in surer and more economical haulage.
